1. The psalmist references the wicked, the sinners and the scoffers in 1:1; are these separate groups of people? Why, or why not?
2. How does the blessed man's life intersect with the wicked, the sinners and the scoffers? Is this connected in any way to his blessing? Can you relate?
3. Is meditation in 1:2 more of a clearing our mind from distractions and focusing on the positive, or an active pondering and conversation with God while listening for His direction and revelation? Support your answer with Scripture.
4. How are we like fruit trees in our walk with God (1:3)?
5. How do verses 4-5 reflect the decisions made throughout one's life? Compare with Matthew 7:21-23
